You must make your beneficiary designation revocable or irrevocable by checking one of the circles below. You may change a revocable beneficiary designation at any time. You may not change an irrevocable beneficiary designation or make certain changes to your plan without the written consent of the irrevocable beneficiary.

Note: Where Québec law applies and you have designated your married spouse or civil union spouse as beneficiary, the designation will be irrevocable unless you check the circle marked "Revocable" below.

I hereby make the above beneficiary designation: ○ Revocable ○ Irrevocable

If you are designating a trustee/administrator, we recommend you consult with a legal advisor, and with any proposed trustee/administrator.

I designate the person(s) names above under Beneficiary Designation as my beneficiary. I certify that the information in this form is true and complete, to the best of my knowledge. If applying for benefits for my dependents, I am authorized to release information concerning my spouse/common law spouse and my dependents for the purpose of determining their eligibility for benefits. If my social insurance number is used as my certificate number, I authorize use for the identification and administration of my group benefits. I authorize Canadian Benefit Administrators to make any and all inquiries relating to group benefits claims and administration on behalf of my dependents and myself.
