

Friendship Baptist Church Worship Pastor

Philosophy and Heart

You are a leader who is passionate for worship and has been called to be a worship pastor at Friendship Baptist Church in Coquitlam, BC. You have a philosophy which incorporates an intergenerational, team-based, holistic, multi-ethnic, kingdom-minded sensitivity. You are adaptable to differing levels of gifting, resources and experiences in the local church. You are fluent in music and have key experience in leading a team. You are excited to recruit, organize, develop and pour into the body of Christ for the purpose of pursuing excellence in worship ministry. You have a deep Biblical understanding of God and worship.

Qualifications

If you have certain deficiencies in below criteria, but sense calling, we encourage you to apply.

- A strong sense of calling to this position
- If married, strong support of your spouse
- Musical background and training
- Ongoing or past Biblical education
- Ideally 3 years of experience in leading or co-leading Sunday morning worship
- Spirit-filled lifestyle which has the fruits of the Spirit on full display
- A strong reputation
- Unity with our vision: "To know and love God, one another and our neighbour."

Responsibilities

- Pursuing your own spiritual development
- Pursuing your own musical development
- Meeting with team members to shepherd them in one on one and group settings
- Working with the pastor to have a unified preparation of song and sermon for Sunday services
- Organizing and leading worship practices before services as well as monthly practices to grow performance and familiarity with existing and new songs
- Recruiting additional people to join the team
- Adding other artistic elements, giftings, and presentations to worship sessions
- Intentionally giving feedback and support to interns

Oversight

- You are called to serve Jesus Christ
- You will specifically report to the lead pastor and the board
- You are accountable to the whole church

Nature of the Position

This is a half-time position with funding being $20,000 per year. Our hope is to grow this to a full-time position as God grows our church numerically. We desire to have this position filled by the end of August 2017 at the latest.

Secondary giftings are assets. Credentialing provided by the BGC. A yearly amount of $500 will be provided for ministry expenses.
