

WEEK OF PRAYER

JANUARY 5-11, 2020

JANUARY 10, 2020

Prayer Promise

But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. - Matthew 5:44

And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit. - James 5:15-18

MEDITATION & SELF EXAMINATION

As we start the new year and the new decade, let us dedicate some time and pray with our Conference for our Conference and beyond. Let us enter a season of Self-Examination as we prepare for the BGC Prayer Week January 5-11, 2020.

1. Ask the Lord to bring people across your path who need prayer. Ask God for discernment as to how to pray for the hurting in this world. Humbly ask people how you can pray for them. Not everyone will receive this, but many will be thankful for you reaching out to them in this way. "In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God." - Philippians 4:8
2. Pray for our nation of Canada - for our government leaders at the federal, provincial, and local level. Remember Paul's words in 1 Timothy 2: First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way.
3. Pray for the lost - those you know who don't have a relationship with God. Romans 10:1 says "My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved."
4. Expand your prayer life: ask God to bless His Church around the world. Pray for the people there, and then bring your witness to the ends of the earth. 2 Thessalonians 3:1 says, "Pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honored, and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men. For not all have faith."

Prayer Promise

And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses." - Mark 11:22-26

Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. - Hebrews 4:16
